Jobie Queen Names Choir

Members of the choir were announced this week by Jobie Queen Janice Crabtree. They are Pat Fryker, La Verne Lewis, Claudia Smith, Sharon Allison, Janice Bristow, Linda Thayne, Joan Thomas, Bette Boyd, Peggy Balsh, Sharon Neely, Jane Rowe, Noveleen Miller, Jean Du Pont, Georgia Sanford, Joan Bunch, Bonnie Denton, Bonnie Vail, Judy Sanders, Judy Elston, Maurine Bradford, Judy Powell, Gayle Crothers, Ellen McCue, Becky Candler, Marianne Rasmussen, Diane Cook, Judy Cook and Sonja Mooneyham.

Jane Moffat, outgoing queen, was honored at a "Farewell Night" prior to the installation Saturday night. Refreshments of strawberry shortcake and coffee were served around the farewell theme.

Initiated at the evening function were Sherry Harvey, Sally Jo Reed, Sharon Wisham, Marlene Fulton, Donna Rigley, and Gayle Crothers.

Scouts Enjoy Skating Party

Thirteen Cub Scouts from Pack 230-C, the Carson Street School group, enjoyed skating last week at the Torrance Roller Rink. The outing was planned for the work of the group in selling hot cross buns at Easter.

Edward Saddle won the race held for the Cub members. Judging the race and chaperons for the event were Messrs. Ralph Fleming, Cubmaster; Cecil Hummel, Jess Cubert, Edward Saddle Sr., and Mrs. Russell Gilbert.

Guild Installs New Officers

Mrs. Ludwig Miller took office as president of the Ladies Guild of the Central Evangelical United Brethren Church yesterday afternoon at the Guild Hall. Installation followed a potluck luncheon at noon.

Assisting Mrs. Miller will be Mmes. B. Hosking, first vice-president; Percy Smith, second vice-president; N. D. Smith, recording secretary; W. A. Felker, treasurer; and Robert Deininger, corresponding secretary. Mrs. Howard McDonald has served as president for the past two years.

Rev. Walter Stanton installed the officers, and Mrs. Stanton led the devotionals.

LOCAL DAUGHTER HOME WITH PARENTS

Home with her parents, the Anthony Jessomes, at 1218 Cota Ave., for the summer is Miss Jeanne Jessome, who graduated from Nazareth Academy in Orange last Sunday.

The local coed, who graduated from Nativity School here before entering the girls' school, plans to attend junior college in Orange next fall.

SLATE POTLUCK

Potluck luncheon will be served by members of the Betsy Ross Sewing Club on Tuesday, June 15 at the home of Janette Clark in Long Beach. Meeting time will be at 10 a.m. and those attending are asked to bring their own table service.

Club to Hear Talk on Color

Rev. Joan Mallan will address the Aquarians tonight on "Science of Color." The group will meet at 8 o'clock at the Neptunian Club, 920 Highland Ave. in Manhattan Beach.

A metaphysician for 30 years, Rev. Mallan has studied color therapy in Europe and the United States. In her lecture she will explain how color affects the human body. She will also discuss the scientific reasons for colors and how they are formed.

The Aquarians, who are sponsoring the lecture, feature activities in all fields of learning. For information about the group or requests for activities and lectures, phone FR 4-7798 or FR 2-9869.

Memorial Rite Held by OES

In loving memory of those members who had passed on during the year, Torrance Chapter No. 380, Order of the Eastern Star, held Memorial Night ceremonies Thursday evening at the Masonic Temple.

Worthy Matron Florence Viellenave and Worthy Patron Vincent Viellenave presided, introducing a large group of past matrons and past patrons, Earl Wells, associate patron, introduced visitors who came from chapters in Long Beach, San Pedro, Wilmington, Tennessee, and Guam.

Following initiation of two new members, the crowd adjourned to the banquet room where tables were decorated with spring bouquets for the refreshment hour. Fern Mead, chairman, was assisted by Rita Foster, Gwendolyn Barrett, Alice Specker, Jennie Desjaine, Martha Garrison, Thomas Foster and Floyd Mead.

Choral Group Sets Concert

"Three Dreams" and other choral classics, spirituals and modern arrangements will be presented June 18 and 19 by the Los Cancioneros, choral group of Hollywood Riviera.

In their fourth annual concert, the Los Cancioneros feature a distinguished chorus of 32 blended voices. The original production, "Three Dreams," will include "A Special Island," with memories of South Pacific; "Manhattan Tower" by Gordon Jenkins; and "The Last Time I Saw Paris." Choral direction is in the hands of Barbara Mabin, and Ray Wallace will be in charge of drama production.

All seats will be reserved for the performance, which will be presented at the Redondo High School auditorium. Tickets are $1.20, including federal tax, and may be reserved by calling FR 5-1633 or FR 5-1546.

BPW THEME TO LOOK FORWARD, ACT NOW

"Look to the Future, Act in the Present" will theme 1954-55 for the Torrance Business and Professional Women's Club, members decided Monday night when they met at the city hall.

The yearly program will stress friendship and learning about the workings of BPW, President Virginia Beck said. High points will be lessons on the federation setup, which will conduct June 30, July 7, 14, and 21 at a place to be announced later.

Initiation of a new member, Margot D. Bergman, 16317 Pa-tronella Ave., owner of Guy's and Dolls Nursery, and naming of committee chairmen for the year also sparked the session.

Assuming committee leadership will be Lela Coddington, public affairs; Herma Tillim, finance; Gladys Bostick, health and safety; Fran Draie, news service; Ella Schwartz, legislation; Frances Dimitri, emblems; Tessa Burke, international relations; Gerry Wood, education and vocations; Muriel Whiting, membership; Clara Conner, birthdays; and Bess Tufts, official hostess.

Mrs. Coddington will be in charge of the next dinner session, slated for June 21 at La Venta Inn. Also calendared for June is a Harbor section breakfast on the 27th at Lafayette Hotel in Long Beach.

State convention reports were presented by the president and Molly Marshall, first vice-president.

Churchwomen Plan Rummage, Food Sale

Clothing for children and adults, useful household articles, and food of all description will be on the shelves at 16406 S. Vermont Ave., Gardena, June 24, 25, and 26 when the women of St. John's Lutheran Church hold a rummage and food sale. Doors will open at 9 o'clock each morning of the three-day money-raising project.
